With us means a well finished set of seven pieces in Solid ASH or OAK. It means a SET that will not have to be sent back in six months to be glued together.

Every Piece is Thoroughly Seasoned

The workmanship is perfect, and every joint as true as will be found in higher grade goods.

In these days when ladies' fashions rule the world, a cheval glass in a dressing case is indispensable. The full length figure may be seen and a lady can see at a glance whether her skirt hangs straight or not. Another feature of the Dressing Cases in these $35 Sets is the hat box. The lady of the house can keep her evening hat without crushing it and entirely away from the dust.

The metal work on the Dressing Case and Wash Stand is of the latest design and is remarkable for the richness.

These Sets are superior to any ever shown in Honolulu and command higher prices elsewhere.

JOHN BROWN ESCAPES.

Insane Asylum Guard Does Not Exercise Proper Vigilance.

Plays Pranks in Various Parts of the City—Arrested on the Slope of Punchbowl.

John Brown, who has been confined in the insane asylum for the past six weeks, taking the gold cure, escaped yesterday morning through the lack of vigilance of one of the guards, and after playing pranks in different parts of the city was captured by Captain Evans on the slope of Punchbowl at about 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

At about 5:30 p. m. a telephone message was received at the police station to the effect that a man was acting queerly in the vicinity, and that native boys were throwing stones at him.

A mounted patrolman was dispatched to the place, but no man could be found.

A little later another telephone message was received from the corner of Queen and Punchbowl streets. The same queer man had just struck a native and run into a Chinese shop. Another officer was sent there, but again the man had disappeared.

At 6:30 a message was received from the corner of Punchbowl street and Palace Walk. A man had entered a yard near by and was acting queerly. Patrolman Dunbar was again sent out, and this time caught his man. He was huddled up against the fence, trembling in every limb. When asked what ailed him he replied that he had been stoned by native boys. The officer asked him where he lived and he answered, "Punchbowl street." At this he started off, saying he was going home for a sleep.

It seems that John Brown, for it happened to be none other, walked up Punchbowl street and went around back of Lieutenant Holt's house on the slope of Punchbowl, where he lay down in the bushes and went to sleep.

A police officer spying the man took him to be a deserting sailor and telephoned to the police station. Captain Evans had just stepped in and took a hack to the place. He was much surprised to find Brown, who surrendered without any resistance.

Brown escaped from the insane asylum about 7:30 a. m. yesterday while in charge of a certain guard. Men were sent out in search of him and had not returned up to the time of capture. Brown had been locked up in the police station a short time when Superintendent Cutter of the insane asylum arrived in company with Guard George Wilson and took the man back to the institution.

WOMAN'S WAY.

There's a saying often quoted
And at man 'tis often hurled,
That the hand that rocks the cradle
Is the hand that rules the world;
I've no reason to dispute it;
No good cause to say it nay,
There is only this about it,
It is simply woman's way.

Woman is a thing quite fragile,
She would rather faint than fight,
And unless you're very agile
I don't know but what she's right;
Would you see a transformation,
See her on a bargain day,
Football rushes are not in it,
With her simple, woman's way.

When a woman goes a-shopping,
Time no value is to her,
While the clerk who waits is dropping
With fatigue he can't demur;
Then she suddenly remembers
That she can no longer stay;
Foolish clerk to mourn and mutter,
It is simply woman's way.

If the cause of prohibition
Was for woman to decide
Men would see an exhibition
Of a power they now deride.
Yet the soda man, I'm thinking,
All the livelong summer day,
Smiles as woman does her drinking,
In her simple woman's way.

When a woman takes a street car,
Journeys short and journeys slow,
And her destination reaches,
From the car she wants to go,
Should she leave the car in motion,
On her back she'll promptly lay,
For she always steps off backwards—
It is simply woman's way.

When you hear your wife complaining
That your income is too small,
And on such small allowance
She cannot exist at all,
When she gets her new spring bonnet
And the bill you have to pay,
Don't reproach her—'pon my honor—
It is only woman's way.

Off the city streets are crowded;
If a woman would go by,
Then with gloom his face is clouded
As the policeman sees her try,
For he knows without assistance
She will only reach half way,
Then will stand to be run over—
In her simple woman's way.

As you lie in peaceful slumber,
And your wife wakes up in a fright,
She's quite sure she hears a burglar
In the middle of the night,
Tho' you search you can't discover
Burglars you can drive away;
Just go back to bed—don't murmur—
It is simply woman's way.

Truly woman has her failings
Just the same as we poor men;
When you hear a poor soul's wailings,
Don't ascribe it all to them,
For in danger, death or anguish,
Without thought or hope of pay,
Woman is a min'st'ring angel—
In her simple woman's way.

THACKERAY'S FIRST POEM.

William Makepeace Thackeray's first attempt at verse has been discovered in England. It was written in pencil on a copy of Thucydides and bears the date: "Charter House, 1827." It runs as follows:

Love's like a mutton chop,
Soon it grows cold,
All its attractions hop
Ere it grows old,
Love's like the colic, sure—
Both painful to endure;
Brandy's for both a cure,
So I've been told.

When for some fair the swain
Burns with desire;
In hymen's fatal chain
Eager to try her;
He weds as soon as he can,
And jumps—unhappy man—
Out of the frying pan
Into the fire.

W. W. DIMOND.

This is hot weather, food spoiling weather, unless the proper attention is given to refrigerator suggestions. There's all sorts of devices for keeping food fresh, good, bad or indifferent. Some of the named refrigerators are no better than dry goods boxes; the lining is not right and the system of draught and air circulation is defective.

In the United States there were complaints against the Gurney, complaints we had not heard of here. When we were at the Coast a few weeks ago, we took the trouble to investigate and learned that the objections were all right, but they were against the Gurney Challenge refrigerator and not the Gurney Cleanable.

We sell the Cleanable; were appointed sole agents for the Hawaiian Islands and we don't sell any other. The Gurney Cleanable is lined with mineral wool, the greatest non-conductor known to science; the Gurney Challenge is lined with charcoal and is a cheap combination that is unservicable.

Foods are easily kept sweet and appetizing with a right refrigerator to help your Summer health is easier kept than regained. There are many refrigerators, some excellent ones but none equal the Gurney Cleanable. Profits are forgotten when we sell them.

What Is PURIFINE?

It is the new disinfectant which has superseded all other disinfectants, being a scientific compound, having no odor, yet possessing the qualities of a powerful disinfectant.

The automatic distributor should be placed in every house in Honolulu where odors and germs of disease exist. They are placed free of charge, taken care of and kept working day and night for $1.00 per month. It's an innovation, but on scientific principles, and appeals to everyone of common sense. The idea is this: The distributor drops two drops a minute, day and night. Foul odors are killed, yet no disagreeable smell of carbolic acid or crude disinfectants takes its place. You don't know that a powerful disinfectant is being used if you judge by the lack of odor. But it's doing the duty—doing it well. Can we show you the "Ideal Automatic Distributor?" Our Mr. Washburn will call, if you'll telephone to
